

Criteria for “CAP” Scholarship in memory of Constance Anna Pash

University Women's Foundation of Jefferson County

- This award of $3,800 will be made to a woman for tuition, fees and required course materials. It may be used at any accredited college/university or graduate school.
- The award will be submitted to your college upon your enrollment. If you have not enrolled by the second term of the school year, the scholarship will be void. Payment will be made directly to your college.
- You must be a resident of East Jefferson County WA.
- You must be a student who is a high school graduate and currently is a college student, and your field of study must be within the STEM fields (Science, Technology, Engineering or Math), with preference for math-based disciplines.
- Award of the scholarship will be based on:
 - Educational and professional goals
 - Academic performance
 - Financial need
- You should not be related to any member of the UWF scholarship committee nor a member of the scholarship donor's family.

Applications and information are available on the AAUW Port Townsend website pt-wa.aauw.net/university-womens-foundation-uwf/scholarships/ and must be returned postmarked by March 5, 2021 deadline.

Applicants will be evaluated according to the following:

1. Completed application, including:
 - Name of the school you are attending or plan to attend
 - Total number of credits required to obtain the degree sought
 - Projected year of graduation
 - Amount of tuition for the coming year
 - Proposed budget to cover education costs in the coming year
2. An essay of no more than two pages describing your educational and professional goals, which may detail past honors, awards, positions of leadership, school activities and other relevant information.
3. Official transcripts covering all completed college work (if any); plus, if you are a college freshman, high school transcript and (if available) SAT score. Include MCAT score if relevant.
4. Three letters of recommendation sent directly to UWF.

The UWF Scholarship Committee will select finalists for interviews. The winner will be selected in late April/early May and awarded at a UWF Scholars' Reception on May 8, 2021. Contact UWF at uwfscholarship@aauwpt.org for questions.
