- This award will be made to a woman for tuition, fees, books, and required course materials. The award may be used at any accredited college/university or graduate school.
- The woman will be a college or graduate student pursuing a degree in medicine which can include:
 - medical school
 - physical therapy school
 - nursing school
 - physician assistant school
 - nurse practitioner school
 - NOTE: Funds are not to be used for chiropractic or veterinary school.
- Payment of the award will be made directly to the school upon enrollment. If the woman does not enroll by the second term of the school year, the scholarship will be void.
- The woman must be a resident of East Jefferson County, WA.
- Award of the scholarship will be based on:
 - Academic performance
 - Financial need
 - Educational and professional goals
- A recipient may qualify for a repeated scholarship but must apply each year.
- The award criteria may be changed with the donor's permission or the permission of the donor's heirs.

Applications are available on the AAUW Port Townsend website (pt-wa.aauw.net) UWF section and must be returned postmarked by March 6, 2022.

Applicants will be evaluated according to the following:

1. Completed application including:
 - Name of the school you are attending or plan to attend
 - Total number of credits required to obtain the degree sought
 - Projected year of graduation
 - Amount of tuition for the coming year
 - Proposed budget to cover education costs in the year

2. An essay of no more than two pages describing your educational and professional goals, which may detail past honors, awards, positions of leadership, school activities and other relevant information.
3. Official transcripts covering all completed college work (include MCAT score if relevant).
4. Three (3) letters of recommendation sent directly to UWF.

The UWF Scholarship Committee may select finalists for interviews. The recipient will be selected in April of the application year. The award will be presented at a UWF Scholars' Reception on May 14, 2022. Questions may be sent to uwfscholarship@aauwpt.org
