

Honoring a literacy superstar

Members of AAUW of Port Townsend gathered to honor Caroline Schimke for her work on the AAUW Chimacum Creek Literacy Project.

LEADER PHOTO BY CATE WINTERS

Posted Wednesday, June 7, 2023 12:51 pm

Cate Winters cwinters@ptleader.com

Members of the American Association of University Women Port Townsend gathered last week to honor Caroline Schimke (third from left) for her four years of service leading the AAUW Chimacum Creek Literacy Project, which helps kindergarten students learn to read.

The AAUW Kindergarten Literacy Program started in 2006. In the current year, the program had 20 tutors serving four classrooms with about 80 students, and provided about 200 volunteer hours