- The award will be submitted to the woman's college upon enrollment. If the woman has not enrolled by the second term of the school year, the scholarship will be void. Payment will be made directly to the college.
- The woman must be a resident of East Jefferson County, WA.
- The woman must either be a current college or graduate school student, and the field of study must be ONE of:
 - Law
 - Fine art
 - Health care including medical research and nursing
- Award of the scholarship will be based on:
 - Educational and professional goals
 - Academic performance
 - Financial need

Applications are available on the AAUW Port Townsend website, aauwpt.org, under the scholarship button, and must be returned postmarked by March 8, 2024.

Applicants will be evaluated according to the following:

1. Completed application, including:
 - Name of school you are attending or plan to attend
 - Total number of credits required to obtain the degree sought
 - Projected year of graduation
 - Amount of tuition for the coming year
 - Proposed budget to cover education costs in the coming year
2. An essay of no more than two pages describing your educational and professional goals, which may detail past honors, awards, positions of leadership, school activities and other relevant information.
3. Official transcripts covering all completed college and/or graduate school work; plus, if you are a college freshman, include high school transcript and (if available) SAT score. Include LSAT or MCAT score if relevant.
4. Three (3) letters of recommendation sent directly to UWF.

The UWF Scholarship Committee may select finalists for interviews; the winner will be selected in April. Applicants should not be a member of the UWF scholarship committee or an immediate family member, nor an immediate family member of the donor of the scholarship. Contact UWF at uwfscholarship@aauwpt.org for details.

The award will be presented at the UWF Scholarship Reception on May 11, 2024.
